

Name: Answer Key Hour: _____ Date: _____

Subjects, Predicates, Objects & Complements Review Worksheet

Directions: Identify each of the underlined words using the key below.

- | | |
|---------------------|-------------------------|
| A. simple subject | D. indirect object |
| B. simple predicate | E. predicate adjective |
| C. direct object | F. predicate nominative |

1. C Luke saw the first tree shudder and fall, far off in the distance.
2. A The Pretty Princess awoke inside the biggest castle in Amazingville.
3. E Luke was fairer, smaller-boned, softer-looking.
4. B She had the prettiest pink flying horse with the largest wingspan in all of the land.
5. C She pursed her lips as she slid the bowls of soup onto the table.
6. C The class elected Martin their monitor.
7. B We should keep our surroundings clean.
8. D Mother gave Luke his scrambled eggs on a plate.
9. F Mother became a factory worker to help her family.
10. F The eye of a tornado is an eerily quiet area.
11. A My aunt has brought me a computer.
12. E Luke was safe from the Population Police.
13. A Our visit made the host happy.
14. C For Valentine's Day, we brought chocolates and strawberries.
15. A Confident he would earn an A, Enrique proudly handed the teacher his essay.

Name: Answer Key Hour: _____ Date: _____

Phrases Review Worksheet

Directions: Identify each of the underlined phrases using the key below.

- a. prepositional phrase c. gerund phrase e. appositive phrase
b. participial phrase d. infinitive phrase

1. A During a quiz or test, I often become nervous or upset.
2. A My mom discussed my nervousness with me before dinner.
3. C I told her that I was not worried about my English test after studying the review sheet.
4. B Tensing up, I had lost much of my appetite.
5. D The next day I was ready to take my test.
6. E I walked through the door, and I went straight to room 117, my English class.
7. B Sitting behind Sally, I took the third seat in the second row.
8. A Other students came in the room and sat around me.
9. A When the test started after the bell, I didn't feel any pressure.
10. C Because of my studying, I did really well on the test.
11. D Many people never learn how to swim.
12. B Some of them, fearing the water, stay away from it.
13. D However, other people work hard to become good swimmers.
14. C Eventually, some succeed in mastering the basic techniques.
15. A For example, my brother is a great swimmer after years of taking classes.
16. B Undaunted by early setbacks, he continued working hard.
17. B At first he would only hang onto the side, kicking his feet.
18. B Standing in the shallow end, he would practice his arm movements.
19. C In the deep end, he always ended by paddling slowly from side to side.
20. D Finally, he felt confident enough to stop the classes.
21. A At college, my brother tried to learn the art of bullfighting.
22. C Practicing his cape swing was one of the requirements for the class.
23. E This requirement, a long-standing tradition at the school, was easy for most students.
24. A To my brother, however, it was a difficult challenge.
25. B Cheered on by his friends, he would swing his cape back and forth.