Name: _____   Identifying Subordinate Clauses

Directions: Identify each underlined clause as a N (noun), ADJ (adjective), or ADV (adverb).

   Noun clause - can NOT be removed; can be replaced with someone or something

   Adjective clause - can be removed; can NOT be moved.

   Adverb clause - can be removed; CAN be moved.

_____ 1. The first submarine that ever sank a warship was designed for the Confederacy by Horace L. Hunley.

_____ 2. It could reach a speech of four miles per hour if the wind and the tide were right.

_____ 3. The crew propelled the small ship, which was built from a converted boiler, by turning several hand cranks.

_____ 4. Although it cruised only three inches below the surface, it could submerge to a depth of six feet.

_____ 5. Its only victim was the Federal sloop Housatonic, which it sank off Charleston on February 17, 1864.

_____ 6. One night a lookout on the Housatonic reported that a planklike object was approaching the ship.

_____ 7. He couldn't imagine what the strange object might be.

_____ 8. In the violent explosion which soon followed, the Housatonic went to the bottom; the submarine sank soon afterward.

_____ 9. Before it met its final fate, the H.L. Hunley had been sunk three times and had drowned more than twenty men, including its inventor.

_____ 10. Naval experts say that the Hunley was the grandparent of the modern submarine.

_____ 11. Whether or not other galaxies might be inhabited is an interesting problem.

_____ 12. The green man who sometimes appears on inn signs in England commemorates an important figure in old springtime festivities.

_____ 13. If you read Greek mythology, you can discover many interesting stories.

_____ 14. After the Amazons were defeated, Theseus married one of them.

_____ 15. One tourist asked who is buried in the Taj Mahal.

_____ 16. What creates the craters on the moon is being investigated.

_____ 17. Evergreen plants, which stay green all winter, inspired the Christian symbol of hope.

_____ 18. Until I read the story of the Amazons, I had not heard of this race of fighting women.

_____ 19. When I view reproductions of Greek vases, I look for representations of the battles with the Amazons.

_____ 20. Send whoever requests a subscription a newsletter.